

PURDUE LAMBING SCHOOL

This event should be helpful to goat producers also

Saturday, February 24, 2018 - 9:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Purdue Animal Sciences Research and Education Center (Sheep Unit)

The Lambing School is conducted as an educational event for new, beginning or veteran sheep or goat producers to familiarize them with lambing or kidding procedures. The program will cover the critical production phases of late gestation, lactation, and care of newborns. Topics will include: nutrition, reproduction, health considerations, lambing barn obstetrics and necessary management practices. The Lambing School is designed for maximum "hands on" experience and informal questions and discussion.

COST: $35.00 per person, includes morning coffee and donuts, lunch, and educational materials.

RESERVATION: Must be received by February 15, 2018. A maximum of 40 are accepted on a first come basis.
